The Bible will be our primary resource. In addition there are 2 other resources we'll use: Exploring the Old Testament: A Guide to the Prophets by J. Gordon McConville and The Bible's Prophets: An Introduction for Christian and Jews by David J. Zucker. Both books are available online in book and Kindle editions.

On the Road Again! The first Senior bus trip of Fall 2018 is scheduled for Thursday, September 20. We will leave the church parking lot on 9:15 am. Our first stop is at the NC Pottery Museum in Seagrove. This is the only Museum in the country devoted solely to pottery. After lunch, we will visit Seagrove Orchids, an orchid nursery with over 200 varieties of orchids. The cost of the trip is $26.00, includes transportation and pottery tour. Winter is coming.... and our neighbors at Cedar Point need warm coats!

Please be a part of the solution by:

- donating clean, gently used coats that are in full working order
- helping to sort the coats
- helping the day of the sale

What? Winter coat collection! I know it is still super hot outside, but in order to collect and sort coats we need to start now!

When? During the month of September, we'd like to collect as many winter coats as possible! Please help spread the word (friends, neighbors, groups, schools, etc)! We will be holding a coat sale at Cedar Point on October 20th.

Where? You'll see lime green donation boxes in the Narthex, outside Kepley Hall, and outside Luther Hall.

More details on the sale itself are coming, please keep an eye out! Let's work together to keep folks warm this winter!

CROP Hunger Walk 2018— Taking place on Sunday, October 28 in Raleigh at NC State. You can help end hunger one step at a time! Visit www.trianglenccrop.org for more information about how tens of thousands of CROP Hunger Walkers are committed to building a hunger-free world! It is not too early to decide to participate & begin the process! Joel Kepley is St. Philip's Team Captain, jkepley@nc.rr.com.

Being a Welcoming Congregation—Save the date, Wednesday, 9/26 at 6:30 in Luther Hall to attend a special presentation and panel (including some of our youth), discussing what it means for St. Philip to be a welcoming congregation. How we show God's love and our love to each other and the world around us.
